Instructions:

One of the areas that the Department of Education requires Financial Aid administrators to verify is your (or your parents') tax filing status. On your FAFSA you answered a questions concerning your (or your parents') marital status. Your FAFSA or other documents submitted indicate that you (or your parents) are married, but according to your (or your parent) income tax return you have filed "Head of Household" or "Single". IRS Publication 17 states that a married person can only file income taxes as "Married Filing Jointly" or "Married Filing Separately".

A: CONSIDERED MARRIED For tax purposes, you may be a married person and are considered married for the whole year if on December 31, 2014 you and your spouse met ANY ONE of the following criteria (2014 IRS Publication 12, Chapter 2). Check any that you can answer "yes" to.

- ☐ You are married and living together as husband and wife
- ☐ You are living together in a common law marriage that is recognized in the state where you now live or in state where the common law marriage began
- ☐ You are married and living apart, but not legally separated or under a mutual separation agreement
- ☐ You are separated under an interlocutory (not final) decree of divorce.

If you said "yes" to one of the questions above, that means you are considered married and are not eligible to file a 2014 IRS income tax return as "Head of Household" or "Single". You must file an amended 2014 tax return to the IRS, and send the following to the Financial Aid Office

(Attached)

1. A signed copy of this Head of Household Worksheet ☐
2. A signed, amended tax return (1040X) ☐
3. A signed, original tax return transcript (if not submitted already) ☐
4. A Verification Worksheet (if not submitted already) ☐

If you are "considered unmarried" by the IRS, and you were eligible to file your 2014 Federal Income Taxes as "Head of Household", please submit a written explanation as to why, and attach supporting documentation provided by your tax preparer or other source.
