WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE NUMBER: AHS 7615

COURSE TITLE: Administration of Faith-Based Human Service Programs

LEARNING OUTCOMES AND GOALS:

I. GOAL A:
   a. Understand the historical involvement of faith-based organizations in meeting human needs
   i. Learning Outcomes: the student will:
      A-1 Explain social and economic events in U.S history that served as catalysts for faith-based organizations.
      A-2 Identify key public policies that shaped faith-based organizations involvement in human services.
      A-3 Compare faith-based and secular responses to human needs

II. GOAL B:
   a. Demonstrate and appreciate the contributions of diverse faith based organizations in transforming society
   i. Learning Outcomes: the student will:
      B-1 Explain the role of faith-based organizations in shaping society, culture, and its instruction
      B-2 Identify successful models of faith-based organizations in administering human services programs
      B-3 Analyze social and economic trends in the U.S. that merit faith-based organizations involvement

III. GOAL C:
   a. Understand administrative and organizational development principles for effective implementation of faith-based human services programs
   i. Learning Outcomes: the student will:
      C-1 Explain organizational development principles: mission, vision, values, structure
      C-2 Describe inherit strengths and weaknesses of faith-based organizations
      C-3 Explain the dynamics of faith as an appropriate response to human needs
      C-4 Identify effective leadership and management strategies for faith-based organizations

IV. GOAL D:
   a. Use appropriate written and oral communication skills during class, and on assignments
   i. Learning Outcomes: the student will:
      D-1 Communicate information orally in a meaningful, logical and grammatical manner
      D-2 Submit two writing assignments, one in standard American Psychological Association style (APA)
      D-3 Prepare and deliver a group presentation through group collaboration