I. MAJOR INSTRUCTIONAL GOALS:

GOAL A: Examine and recognize the complexities of script problem solving.

Learning Objectives: The student will

A-1. Identify script problems
A-2. Classify script problems
A-3. Resolve script problems

GOAL B: To investigate techniques and write complete scripts for television and film.

Learning Objectives: The student will

B-1. Examine and recognize the television script format
B-2. Examine and recognize the film script format
B-3. Develop proper transitions among the various acts

GOAL C: To examine and recognize the process for selling a television script or film script.

Learning Objectives: The student will

C-1. Identify the market
C-2. Identify and contact agents
C-3. Identify the roles of agents, attorneys, and other players in the Hollywood market

GOAL D: The student will use appropriate written oral communication skills.

Learning Objectives: The student will

D-1. Communicate information orally in a logical and grammatical manner.
D-2. Present written/word processed information using standard APA style

II. CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are expected to attend class and participate actively and in a positive way. Questions and relevant observations are encouraged and enrich the experience of the entire class.
Computers in the classrooms are intended to be used as tools to enhance the students' learning experience. Instant messaging, gaming, emailing, and surfing the web are distractions to the student, the surrounding students, and the instructor and constitute inappropriate behavior. Students are ethically obliged to avoid these and similar practices.