COURSE TITLE: Financial Institution Management

COURSE NUMBER: FIN 412

I. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Each student will:

1. Be familiar with recent developments in the financial services industry.

2. Gain an understanding of the value added in financial services.

3. Be able to differentiate the financial statements of a financial institution from financial statements of other industries.

4. Understand the dynamics of value production in credit services.

5. Understand the economic forces impacting financial service providers.

6. Understand the regulations and tax considerations in the financial services industries (Banks, Securities Firms, and Insurance Companies).