COURSE TITLE: Topics in Human Resource Management

COURSE NUMBER: HRM 460

I. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Each student will:

1. Develop an increased awareness of the different aspects of the human resource management field; such as staffing, human resource development, international HR, etc.

2. Develop an understanding of the definitions, characteristics, attitudes and contributions of human resource professionals.

3. Expand their knowledge of different human resource management strategies which will solve various issues/problems in the workplace.