Wilmington University
College of Business
Basic Course Information

Course Title: Managerial Accounting
Course Number: MBA 6100

I. Course Objectives:

Each student will:

1. The general objective of this course is to develop MBA candidates who understand and can use accounting information in decision making. These techniques, once understood, should help the candidates to make better business decisions.

2. The specific objectives are to acquire knowledge of the following concepts:
   A. Full Cost Accounting
   B. Differential Costs, Fixed Costs, Variable Costs
   C. Cost-Volume-Profit Relationships, Break-Even Analysis
   D. Product Costing, Overhead Costs
   E. Standard Costing and Variance Analysis
   F. Capital Investment Techniques
   G. Management Control
   H. Management Reports

Syllabus is sole property of Wilmington University