COURSE TITLE: Family Practicum IV

COURSE NUMBER: MSN 8330

TOTAL HOURS OF CLINICAL:

Clinical Credit Hours:
- All MSN students are required to complete a minimum of 120 hours in this semester; failure to meet these hours will result in a failure.
- By the end of the final practicum, all MSN students are expected to have seen a minimum of 150 pediatric/adolescent patient encounters, 150 gender/reproductive health patient experiences, and 150 adult patient encounters in order to satisfactorily complete the MSN/NP program.

By the end of the practicum, 95% of the time students will exhibit behaviors that fulfill the following competencies with guidance increasing autonomy in practice and some guidance.

Course Objectives

I. Practice Inquiry & Scientific Foundation
   Demonstrates the ability to critically analyze data

II. Leadership
    Demonstrate leadership qualities through reflective thinking and collaboration with inter-disciplinary team member.

III. Ethics
    Integrates ethical principles in decision making into clinical practice.

IV. Health Delivery System
    Evaluate impact of health care systems on the patient, families and providers.

V. Quality
    Utilize evidence to evaluate quality in health care.

VI. Policy
    Demonstrate an understanding of the relationship of policy and practice.

VII. Professional practice
    Demonstrate accountability for professional practice.

VIII. Technology and Information Literacy
    Demonstrate information literacy skills in decision making.

8/2013