WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Environmental Science
COURSE NUMBER: SCI 310

I. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The student will:

IDEA- 7 1. Gain a broader understanding and appreciation of intellectual/cultural activity (music, science, literature, etc.)

IDEA- 3 2. Learn to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving, and decisions)

IDEA- 10 3. Develop a clearer understanding of, and commitment to, personal values

4. Examine man’s relationship with his environment and develop a sense of responsibility.
5. Learn the significance of man’s alterations to the environment.
6. Identify the sources of environmental degradation and learn the ways in which problems are identified.
7. Develop an understanding of the current efforts to correct environmental damage.