WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY
BASIC COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE TITLE: Computer and Network Security Internship
COURSE NUMBER: SEC 490

MINIMUM GRADE POLICY:

The Computer & Network Security program has set a minimum passing grade of "C-" for program core courses. Students receiving a grade lower than "C-" in any required core course must retake that course.

I. COURSE OBJECTIVES

The student will:
A. Develop and understanding of the functions of the company
B. Observe organizational and professional styles as they relate to their particular specialty
C. Apply technical skills learned in the classroom
D. Gain valuable workplace experience to put on the student’s resume
E. Cultivate personal contacts within the workplace (and professions)