DELAWARE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Step by Step

Start at Delaware Tech and finish at WilmU.

Did You Know?

Most Delaware Tech courses will transfer directly into WilmU's undergraduate programs,and WilmU will accept up to 90 credits.

Get started at Delaware Technical Community College.

Step 1. Apply for admission at dtcc.edu. Visit the Admissions Office.

Step 2. Complete your FAFSA at fafsa.gov, and apply for Cecil Foundation Scholarships.

Step 3. Submit official transcripts. Take placement tests if needed.

Step 4. Choose your program and meet with an advisor to plan and stay on your academic pathway.

Keep at it Hawks!

Step 5. Explore your WilmU bachelor's degree options: wilmu.edu/Academics

WilmU offers bachelor's degree programs online and in person close to home so you can learn in a way that fits your lifestyle!

Step 6. Apply* for admission at WilmU: wilmu.edu/Apply

You are automatically accepted if you complete your degree at Delaware Tech!

Congratulations!

Step 7. Earn your associate degree.

Step 8. Submit your official transcripts.

Welcome Wildcats!

Step 9. Complete your FAFSA if you plan to apply for financial aid: fafsa.gov

Enter WilmU School Code: 007948

Step 10. Apply for financial aid: wilmu.edu/FinancialAid

Step 11. Call 877.967.5464 to schedule a meeting with an advisor to plan your classes.†

Meet with a WilmU advisor to maximize your transfer credits!

Step 12. Register for classes.

Experience the WilmU Difference.

WILMINGTON UNIVERSITY™ GEORGETOWN

*RN-to-BSN program students must submit copy of RN license to undergradadmissions@wilmu.edu.

Undergraduate students may need to submit SAT/ACT scores for College Education programs.

†Students interested in Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Nurse Practitioner, or all doctoral level programs should visit wilmu.edu/GradAdmissions for more detailed instructions.