Introductory Spanish

This non-credit course is perfect for a true beginner of Spanish whose objective is to learn just enough Spanish to get by in a Spanish-speaking environment. Participants will experience a "hands-on" fun approach that includes greetings and leave-takings, numbers and the alphabet, asking for and following directions, telling time, describing clothing, and ordering from a menu. The goal is enough knowledge to survive in a Spanish culture.

| July 1 – July 22 | Thursdays | 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. |

Beginning Italian

Designed for true beginners, this course will introduce students to the basic skills of language learning: pronunciation, speaking (use of elementary greetings, questions and answers, etc.) listening, reading, and writing.

| June 2 – June 23 | Wednesdays | 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. |

Topics of Interest

Creating Beach Jewelry

In this course students will learn about the basic tools and techniques used in the jewelry making process. Each class will build on the knowledge gained from the previous class. Topics covered will include beading wire, crimps, split rings/jump rings and clasps. Supply List for each project will be discussed at the first class.

| July 28 – August 18 | Wednesdays | 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. |

Aim It, Frame It, Click It

This is a hands on course which will expand how you “see” a picture. We’ll be exploring how different positions, focal length and lighting can combine to take an ordinary photo to extraordinary.

| August 2 – August 5 | Mondays | 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. |

Writing Your Memoirs

Every memoir is based on fact but filtered through memory and emotion to read more like fiction than biography. In this course, you will tap into those mental snapshots and start to put “your story” to the page!

| June 2 – June 23 | Wednesdays | 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. |

Short Fiction Writing: Concept and Completion

This course will help students create believable characters, and bring these characters to a moment of decision through plot elements of conflict and resolution. Elements of dialogue, setting, scene vs. summary, and objective correlative will be studied.

| June 30 – July 21 | Thursdays | 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. |

Writing Creative Nonfiction

Creative Nonfiction is the art of writing about real events with a special emphasis on language that blends elements of story-telling with journalism. CNF includes the personal essay, literary or social analysis, the memoir, feature articles, reportage of any event. Together we'll explore several of these categories.

| July 28 – August 18 | Wednesdays | 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. |
