Dear Prospective Student,

The Master of Science in Organizational Leadership (MSOL) is the premier transformative leadership education program of its kind offered in this region. It is a cohort program, where you begin with and attend all classes with the same people throughout. This format enables you to not only learn about leadership, it also gives you an opportunity to practice leadership skills. These skills will enhance your role in your current position and prepare you for a more effective future leadership role. This letter is written to bring you current information about the MSOL Program.

The MSOL weekend format at the Wilson Graduate Center in New Castle can be completed in (15) months. In this format, each course meets four (4) weekends, per course, on Friday evenings from 6:30pm to 9:30pm, and on Saturdays from 9:00am to 4:15pm. An orientation weekend precedes the first class. We also offer the MSOL Program in a weeknight format at the Wilson Graduate Center, and at Georgetown, if there is sufficient interest.

In the weeknight format, each course meets one (1) night per week for seven (7) weeks, and the entire Program is completed in two (2) years. An orientation also precedes the first class meeting.

The total cost of the program is $16,380 ($1,365 per course). That amount covers all fees (application, registration, and graduation), the cost of all books, and the weekend retreat.

A recent graduate of the MSOL Program had this to say about his experience:

“…. This graduate program develops all the aspects of leadership required to allow leaders at all levels to be successful in their roles…. I would highly recommend the program to anyone who desires marked improvement in their leadership abilities; both personally and professionally.” Oliver Major (2006)

MSOL information sessions are scheduled throughout the year. Please visit the University Website: www.wilmu.edu for the dates of information sessions at Wilmington University sites in New Castle, Dover, and Georgetown.

I invite you to attend an information session so I can share more details about the MSOL Program with you. I look forward to meeting you at an upcoming information session.

Sincerely,

Roland E Livingston, Ed.D
Coordinator, Master of Science in Organizational Leadership
INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE
MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP
PROGRAM APPLICATION

1. The completed application and any subsequent correspondence must be mailed to:

   Office of Graduate Admissions
   Wilmington University
   Wilson Graduate Center
   31 Read’s Way
   New Castle, DE  19720

2. A Statement of Goals (essay) is required. This statement should be between two and five pages in length (double-spaced). The purpose of the statement is to aid the program committee in its evaluation of your application and, more important, to start you on the road to self-evaluation, an important aspect of these programs. Be as concrete as you can.

3. Have OFFICIAL transcripts of your degree-granting institutions sent directly to the Graduate Admissions Office. Graduates of Wilmington University need not make these arrangements. We recommend that you request transcripts immediately. Colleges and Universities often have long response times.

4. Two recommendations are required. One should be from your place of employment indicating their support for your participation in the program. Your recommendation sources should send the enclosed form directly to the Graduate Admissions Office at the New Castle site. If they wish, your sources can submit a letter in lieu of completing the form. However, you must complete Part A of the form, and the form must be enclosed with the submission.

5. A copy of a current Resume may be substituted for the Employment History part of the application form. If so, indicate your choice of this option on the form.

6. The program committee will evaluate the above materials. Members of the program committee will interview qualified applicants at the New Castle site. You will be contacted to schedule the interview.

7. All information is kept in strict confidence. Information requested on race and sex is gathered to enable Wilmington University to comply with its Equal Opportunity obligations and will not be used to discriminate against individuals.

8. There are no documentation deadlines. However, these programs are organized as cohorts and the cohorts are filled on a first-come, first-served basis. Applicants whose documentation is incomplete may have their admission delayed to the start of a later cohort.

9. Questions should be directed to the Programs Coordinator, Dr. Roland Livingston, or to the Programs Administrative Assistant, Mr. Fred Kirkland. The contact information is as follows:

   Dr. Roland E. Livingston            Mr. Fred Kirkland
   302-295-1147                        302-295-1171
   302-295-1154 (fax)                   302-295-1154 (fax)

Instructions for the MSOL Program Admissions Essay

The purpose of the essay is twofold.

1. It allows the admissions committee to assess your ability to write clear, concise, grammatical English.

2. It gives you the opportunity to state your goals in concrete terms, thereby providing a foundation for you to examine and reexamine throughout the program.

Instructions:

Please describe your values and your goals for the next five years or so.

Values: What is important to you?
   e.g., advancement, family, integrity, accomplishment, etc.

Goals: What goals do you have in furtherance of these values?
   e.g., What do you expect to get from the program? Where do you wish to be in three years? In five years?

   Note that goals such as “become the Director of Human Relations,” are not what we have in mind. No one knows where you’ll be in a month, let alone in five years. Instead consider what you want to be doing, in as concrete terms as possible. Your goals should be traceable to your values.

Format: Three to five pages, double-spaced in a twelve-point font.
