Health Advocacy

Unlimited, confidential access to a Personal Health Advocate, typically a registered nurse supported by medical directors and benefits and claims specialists, who can get to the bottom of a wide variety of healthcare and insurance-related issues.

Your Personal Health Advocate can help you and your family:

• Find the right doctors, hospitals and other providers
• Schedule tests and appointments
• Secure second opinions
• Explain benefits coverage and health conditions
• Research the latest treatments
• Resolve billing and claims issues
• Locate eldercare services
• Make informed decisions
• Save you time, money and worry

During your very first call, you will be:

• Assigned a Personal Health Advocate
• Asked for necessary background information
• Informed of all the ways Health Advocate can help
• Assured that your question, problem or request will be addressed, no matter how long it takes

EAP+Work/Life™

Your EAP+Work/Life benefit gives you confidential access to a Licensed Professional Counselor or Work/Life Specialist, who can provide short-term assistance with the temporary setbacks in life.

Get help 24/7 with personal, family and work issues such as:

• Grief, loss, depression; relationship issues, divorce
• Job stress, burnout, work/life balance
• New baby, adoption, eldercare
• Financial and legal issues, retirement, identity theft
• Addiction, eating disorders, mental illness

In a crisis, emergency help is available 24/7.

Who is covered?

Health Advocacy is available to eligible employees, their spouses or domestic partners, dependent children, parents and parents-in-law.*

*Some restrictions apply.
