

KNOW IT. NAME IT. STOP IT.

January is Stalking Awareness Month.

One in 6 women and 1 in 19 men in the US have experienced stalking victimization at some point during their lifetime in which they believed that they or someone close to them would be harmed or killed.

If you feel like you're in danger on campus, please contact University Safety at 302-325-3333.

Know the Signs

- Repeated phone calls - including hang-ups
- Following you - showing up to where you are
- Sending unwanted items - gifts, texts, etc.
- Damaging your property
- Monitoring your locations and/or phone calls
- Using hidden cameras or GPS
- Threatening you, your friends, or family
- Researching information about you
- Trying to control or track you

Additional Resources

- www.stalkingawarenessmonth.org
- www.victimsofcrime.org

What You Can Do

- Call 911 if you are in immediate danger
- Trust your gut —if you feel unsafe, you probably are!
- Develop a safety plan
- Avoid your stalker—do not communicate with them
- Document the signs—keep evidence
- Inform family, friends, etc. about the stalking
- Contact our Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Linda Andrzejewski at 302-356-6754
- Contact University Safety at 302-325-3333

You Can Win! Take a quick stalking awareness quiz and be entered for a chance to win a gift card! Visit www.surveymonkey.com/r/StalkingAwareness.

WilmU's Title IX Coordinator:

Dr. Linda Andrzejewski | linda.m.andrzejewski@wilmu.edu
47 Reads Way · New Castle, DE 19720 | 302.356.6754

WILMINGTON
UNIVERSITY™